

Relax in Pullman Lounge

MISSED a flight? Weary from travel? Got a long time to wait? Relax in ultimate luxury at the Pullman Lounge in Cork International Airport Hotel.

Features of what is the first facility of its kind in a hotel in Europe and capturing the atmosphere of an aircraft cabin are: Top of the range leather Panasonic Reclining Massage Loungers.

Two fully fitted private bathrooms with toilet, bath, shower and toiletries.

Large screens for TV and DVD

WiFi internet access for e mail browsing and flight information.

Telephone.

Low lighting for relaxation.

Full range of local and international newspapers and magazines.

Complimentary tea, coffee, soft drinks, freshly baked bread and pastries from the hotel bakery and snacks.

Headphones to enjoy music.

Free minibus service to the airport terminal (just three minutes away on foot).

A day time pass (maximum three hours) costs €25 and an evening pass from 11pm to 8am costs €40.

General manager of the new Cork International Airport Hotel, Gabriele Molari, predicts the Pullman Lounge will prove very popular, especially for onward corporate travellers wishing to relax and refresh. Bookings can be made to the hotel at 021-4549800 or via its courtesy phone next to the information desk in the airport terminal.

A first for a hotel in Europe, the Pullman Lounge for travellers at Cork International Airport Hotel.